

Quiz B

Questions	Answers
1. What are the two main types of batteries that families use?	a. Environmentally friendly batteries and polluting batteries b. Round batteries and square batteries c. Disposable batteries and rechargeable batteries
2. TV remote controls, wireless phones, cell phones ... What powers them all when we want to use them while we're walking around?	a. Generating stations b. Disposable or rechargeable batteries c. Electric sockets
3. Why shouldn't you throw batteries in the garbage?	a. Because they contain materials that could be harmful to the environment if they go into landfill sites b. Because they are too small and could fall out of the garbage bag c. Because cats might eat them
4. Can cell phone batteries be recycled?	a. Yes, sometimes b. No, never c. Yes, always
5. To avoid harming the environment, what is the best thing to do with used batteries?	a. They should be burned to eliminate them completely b. They should be stored in special containers c. They should be recycled and made into new products